

1
This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Harrol aged thirteen years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the eonsent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and aeoord, put himself Apprentice to David Humph- rey of the town of New Windsor - Orange Co. to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farming and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornieation, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:
with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Farming

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years & given the said Apprentice one quarter's Schooling in each year, a suit of new cloths and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifteenth day of January - in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

H. Bell
B2

David Humphrey

*his James + Harrol
mark*

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Edw. T. Bailey
John T. Bailey

Edw. T. Bailey
John T. Bailey

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Henry Southworth aged thirteen years four months & six days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Dick Ten Brook

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of two Years & six Months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of two Years & six Months

and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each Year, a suite of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of said term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the sixth day of April in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Thomas Ball

Henry

By Consent of Parties, this Indenture is cancelled

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Rich. Furman
John Var. Lee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Thomas Gates aged Nineteen Years nine months & twenty four days —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Joseph Baggott of the City of New York

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Hair Dresser and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of one Year two months, & six days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Hair Dresser —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, ~~apparel~~, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of one Year two months, and six days and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each Year, a suit of new clothes & a new Bible at the expiration of the term, and to pay ~~him~~ six dollars per month for the first year and seven Dollars per month for the remainder of the time the said sum to be paid quarterly to his Brother Edward Gates

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty seventh day of April — in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Thomas Ball.

Joseph Baggott

Thomas Gates

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Van Ness

Commissioners.

(4)

A. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Terence Farrell aged eighteen Years & one Month

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Henry Eggleso of the City of New York

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Cabinet Maker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of two Years & eleven Months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cabinet Maker — And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of two Years & eleven Months

and give the said Apprentice one quarter Schooling in each year, a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the end of said term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty fifth day of May — in the forty fifth — year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter Henry Eggleso

Terence Farrell

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

5

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That James Cole aged twelve years ten month and twenty three days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Mone of the City of New York

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Hair dresser and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Hair dresser

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years and give

the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty sixth day of May in the forty fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Ja. Mone

James Cole by Consent of Parents Sept 1823

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Thos. Smith
John T. Asafie

Commissioners.

6

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Washington Seal aged fourteen years three months and eleven days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Mason

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of quilder and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of six years eight months & nineteen days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of quilder And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of six years eight months and nineteen days and give the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifteenth day of June in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Witnessed by Consent of Parties

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. Remick
John Van der

Commissioners.

7

This Indenture

witnesseth,

That Christopher Gorman aged Twelve years three months and twenty seven days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Jacob Bennet

of the Town of New Utrecht Kings County Former
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years eight months & three days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years eight months and three days and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Sixth day of July in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter Christopher Gorman

Jacob Bennet

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Atth. Gorman

Peter Hagg

Commissioners.

8

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Tryon aged Twelve years four months and twenty two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Etienna Millon

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Tailor — — —
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years Seven months & Eight days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Tailor — — —
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years Seven months and Eight days and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term — — —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirtieth day of August — in the Forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter E. Millon

Wm Tryon

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

P. H. Luman
W. D. Luman
L. L. Luman

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Patrick McGaragan aged Twelve years and one month

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Crowell Mundy
of Staten Island Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years & Eleven months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years & Eleven months
months and give the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year
A suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Fourth day of August in the forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

90

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Patrick ~~the~~ Carrigan ~~aged Twelve~~ years and one month — — — — —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Crowell Mundy
of Staten Island Farmer — — — — —

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Farmer — — — — —
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years & Eleven months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Farmer —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and Eleven months and give the said Apprentice
one quarters Schooling in each year
A Suit of new Clothes and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

[Decorative flourish]

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenth — day of August in the forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

the name was altered Patrick Carrigan before signing —

John Hunter

Crowell Mundy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Pitt Rivers

Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth, That Eugene Joseph aged Thirteen Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Michael H
Bowyer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and

Give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothes and a new Bible at the exp -iration of said term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of August in the forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

his Eugene + Joseph
mark

Michael H Bowyer

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Larlee
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

(11)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Gibson aged Seventeen years and two months and ten days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Charles Place
Ladies Shoe maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Ladies Shoe maker
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three years nine months & twenty days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Ladies Shoe maker
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three years nine

months and twenty days and give the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year A suit of new clothing in addition to his old and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of Sept in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Hunter

James + Gibson
mark

Charles Place

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. R. Smith
John T. Van Sic

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Ridgeway aged Twelve years two months and eleven days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Arnold
of the town of Cornwall and County of Orange Chair-Maker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Chair-Maker
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years nine months & nineteen days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Chair-Maker
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years nine months and nineteen days and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year Admit
of new-clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty sixth day of Sept in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Arnold

William Ridgeway
mark

John Arnold

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Rich. L. Freeman
John V. A. J. C.

Commissioners.

13

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Theodore Banthy aged thirteen years and six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Moses Drake
of the Town of East Chester and County of Westchester Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years and six months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years and six

months and give the said apprentice
one quarter's schooling in each year
A Suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty seventh day of Sept in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter ~ Moses Drake

Theodore Banthy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. C. Cullen

John A. Cullen

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Benjamin Mathews aged sixteen years and ten months —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Mathews

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Seaman —
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years and two months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Seaman —
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years and two months and give the said apprentice one quarter's schooling in each year a suit of new clothes together with his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term — — — — —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenelfth — day of October in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one —

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Benjamin Mathews

John Hurston

his John Mathews
mark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John W. As, Sec

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Peck aged fifteen years and six months — — — — —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to George Lambert Junr of Rhinebeck Dutchess County Farmer — — — — —

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer — — — — —
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years and Six Months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer — — — — —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years and Six months and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year
A suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term — — — — —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Fifteenth day of October in the forty-sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One — — — — —

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

John Peck

George Lambert Junr

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van Lee

H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

16

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Black aged nine
Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Isabella Milward
of the town of Brooklyn in Kings County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his ~~master~~ ^{mistress} faithfully shall serve, ~~his~~ ^{her} secrets keep, ~~his~~ ^{her} lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said ~~master~~ ^{mistress} nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said ~~master~~ ^{mistress}: He shall not waste his said ~~master's~~ ^{mistress's} goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said ~~master~~ ^{mistress} may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said ~~master~~ ^{mistress}, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said ~~master's~~ ^{mistress's} service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said ~~Master~~ ^{Mistress} shall use the utmost of ~~his~~ ^{her} endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five Years and

give the said apprentice one quarter Schooling in each year A Suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Nineteenth day of October in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

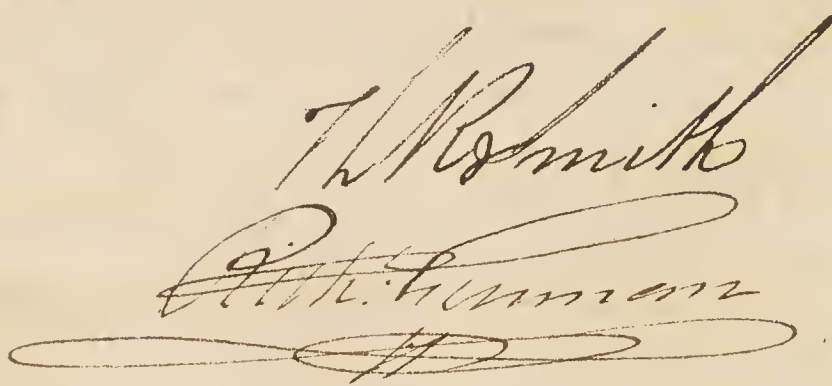

John Hunter

William Black
mark

Isabella Milward

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Commissioners.

17

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Chambers aged thirteen Years and three months — — — — —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Heapfield Whitesmith — — — — —

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Whitesmith — — — — — and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years and nine months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,
his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage
to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his
said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,
or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:
with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall
neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things
behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Whitesmith
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years and nine months and give the said apprentice
one quarters Scharking in each year a Suit of new clothes together with his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term — — — — —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,
the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS
whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Second — day of November in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one — — — — —

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Heapfield

W. C. Totten

This indenture is cancelled by consent of parties

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Jacob
Arthur Tappan

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Henry B. Latham aged Twelve years seven months & twenty one days —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to David Sherry

of East Hampton Suffolk County Farmer —

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer —
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years seven months & nine days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years seven

months & nine days and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new

Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighth — day of Nov — in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one —

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter Henry B. Latham

David Sherry

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Commissioners.

19

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth, That Thomas Hooper aged Eleven years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Abraham L. Val
Henburgh of the County of Hurley, Ulster County, Farmer to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Framer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and give
the said apprentice one quarters
Schooling in each year A suit of
new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the exp iration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenth day of November in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

his Thomas Hooper
mark

Abraham L. Valkenburgh

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van See
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

20

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Charles Utley aged Twelve years four months & twenty two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Robert McElouchan
of the Town of Montgomery in Orange County Hammer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Hammer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years Seven months & Eight days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Hammer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years Seven mo- nths and Eight days and give the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new Clothes in addition to his old ones and a new

Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of November in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hursten

his Charles Utley
mark

Robert McElouchan

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Alm Burtis

Wm Vansee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Clark Martin Aged fourteen years ten months and twenty one days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas Garson
Book binder

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Book binder
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years one Month & nine days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Book binder
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years one mo

nth and nine days and give the Said apprentice one quarter's school ing in each year A Suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones
and a new Bible at the expiration
of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Sixth — day of Nov — in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Clark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Luke McCann aged Eleven Years and Seven Months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Evans of the town of Shawangunk in Western County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years and five months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years and five months and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year
A Suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty seventh day of November in the forty-sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

his Luke McCann
mark

John Evans

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Sax, Sec

W. R. Smith

Commissioners.

22
This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Huse - Aged Eleven Years and Six Months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Rufel

Farmer in the town of Middletown Delaware County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years and Six Months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years and Six Months

and give the said Apprentice one quarters Schooling in each Year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto, Dated the Twenty Seventh day of November - in the forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

James Huse
mark

William Rufel

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Thos K Smith
Peter Stagg } Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Jacob Francis Burger aged fifteen years eight months & nineteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Samuel Vail

Farmer of Smith town Suffolk County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years three months & eleven days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years three mo

nth & eleven days and give the said apprentice one quarters Schooling in each year & a Suit of New Clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated

the Sixth day of December in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Samuel Hurten

Samuel Vail

His
Jacob F. Burger
mark

Thos. H. L.
Superintendent

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

H. R. Smith
L. P. Smith

} Commissioners.

Recorded by Town Clerk of New-York Decem- 24-1823

24

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Clark Martin aged fourteen years Eleven months & Twenty one days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John H. Metzger
Shoemaker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Shoemaker
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years and nine days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Shoemaker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years and nine

days and give the said Apprentice one greater Schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventh day of Decem - in the Twenty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter Clark Martin

John H. Metzger

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John Varpe

Commissioners.

25

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth, That Sanford Trumble aged Ten Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Seagrath Brown of

Castleton Richmond County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven Years (and give)

the said apprentice one quarter school ing in each year a suite of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new
Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventh day of December in the forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John Tarpe

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Shevagan aged fourteen years eight months and eleven days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Oliver D. Rogers
of the town of Montgomery Orange County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer —
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years three months and nine ten days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years three months and nine ten days and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year of suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eleventh day of June in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty One

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter John Shevagan

Oliver D. Rogers

J. J. ...
L. J. ...

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John J. ...
L. J. ...

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Jonathon Lyons Aged fifteen years and four months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York; doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Daniel Jones of Pound Ridge in Westchester County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of five years and eight months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of five years and eight

months and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year A Suit of new Clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty first day of December in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty one

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Wm. B. Ewing

his Jonathon Lyons
mark

Daniel Jones

Mr. Smith
Mr. Tanager

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van der
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Scott aged thirteen years and eight months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Bellamie
Leeland Bookbinder

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Bookbinder
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years and four months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Bookbinder
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years and
four months and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year A suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration
of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourth day of January in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hursten

James Scott
his mark

B. Leeland

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Albion Curtis

John Van Rensselaer

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Paul Pearsall - Aged Eleven
Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Samuel Hopkins of Brookhaven Suffolk County of New York

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten Years

And give the said Apprentice one quarter Schooling in each year & suit of new clothing
in addition to his old ones and a new
Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth day of January in the forty-sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty-two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hurston Paul Pearsall
his
mark

Samuel Hopkins

John V. ...
...

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John V. ...
...

Commissioners.

30

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That

John Stevens Aged fourteen years and six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to David Neffias

of the Town of Flatlands Kings County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years and six months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years and six months

*And give the said apprentice one quarter
schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible
at the expiration of the term*

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighteenth day of January in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our thousand, eight hundred and twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Jo.

Consent of parties

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John T. As. Sec

Arthur Burtis

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That William Hipswell aged ten years and six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Obidiah Jackson paper maker in the town of North Hempstead Queens County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Paper maker and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of ten years and six months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Paper maker. And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of ten years and six months. And give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Sixth day of Febry in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Cancelled by consent of Parties May 25th 1832

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John W. As. Fee
L. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Michl Vermilye Aged sixteen years Nine months and twenty seven days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Allen White

Ladies Shoe Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Ladies shoe Maker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Four Years two months and three days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Ladies Shoe Maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Four Years two months

and three days And give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suite of new cloths, in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the

term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the First day of March in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hurster

Michael Vermilye

Allen White

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Lehman
Wm. Var. fee } Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Horace Powell aged sixteen years nine months and five days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Jackson and Joseph Baggott Glass cutters

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Glass cutter and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years two months & twenty five days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Glass cutter

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years two months and twenty five days And give the said apprentice an Education Equal to one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighth day of March in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Horace Powell
William Jackson
Joseph Baggott

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Sax. fee
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Wilkins, aged sixteen years four months, and five days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Amos Belden

Sole Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Sail Maker
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years seven months, and twenty five
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Sail Maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years seven months, and twenty five days And give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones, and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto.. Dated the Eight day of March in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hursten

Wm Wilkins
mark

Amos Belden

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van Sic
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Wm H Chandal Age Eleven Years
Eight Months and Eighteen Days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Phineas Smith
of Smith Town Suffolk County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years Three Months and Twelve Days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years Three Months and Twelve Days - And give the said apprentice one quarter, schooling, in each year and a suit of new clothing, in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hercunto. Dated the Nineteenth day of March in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Wm H Chandal

Carried by consent of parties April 11-1829

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Le. Fairlie
John Sax. Sec } Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Aaron Stone aged Nine Years
 One Month and Seventeen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Oliver Durning,

of Bloomingburgh Sullivan County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven Years Ten Months and Thirteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven Years Ten Months

and Thirteen days And give the said Apprentice

one Quarter Schooling in each year a suit

of New clothing in addition to his old ones

and a New Bible at the expiration of the

term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Sixth day of March in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hurten

Oliver Durning

Aaron Stone

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Laurel

Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth, That James Brown Aged Nine Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Oliver Dunning

of Bloomingburgh Sullivan County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Twelve Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Twelve years and gave

*the said Apprentice one greater schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible
at the expiration of the term*

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Sixth day of March in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Hunter

his James Brown
master

Oliver Dunning

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Laurel

Peter Hagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Hugh McElrath Aged Eleven Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Benjamin Wintthrop

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven Years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years

And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of New Clothing in addition to his old ones, and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty ninth day of March in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Hunter & Hugh McElrath
Benjⁿ Wintthrop

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John A. J. J. J.
Arthur J. J. J.

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Edward Malley aged Twelve Years, Eleven Months and Five Days —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Henry Keyser —

Now learn — to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Barber —
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine years and Twenty five days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Barber —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine years and Twenty five days And give the said Apprentice: one quarter ^{schooling} in each year a suit of New Clothing in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth — day of June — in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two —

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Mr. B. E. King

Henry Keyser

Edward Malley

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John T. As. Fee
Arthur Butts

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Matthew Pope Aged sixteen Years Three Months and Thirteen Days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Jonathan Bliss

Pewterer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Pewterer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years Eight months and Seventeen Days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Pewterer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, ~~apparel~~, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years Eight months and Seventeen Days

and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of New Clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth day of April in the forty second year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Jonathan Bliss

Matthew Pope

Jonathan Bliss

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss,

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

James A. Lee
W. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That

Henry Valentine Aged Fourteen years ten months and eight days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Cochran

Mahogany Chair and Sofa Maker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Chair and Sofa Maker
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six Years one Month and four days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Chair and Sofa Maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six Years one Month and four days

And give the said Apprentice one year's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old gear
and a New Bible at the expiration of the
term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirteenth day of April in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

H Valentine

John Cochran

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van Slyke
Arthur Burtis

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Nathan Smith Junr

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Two Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Two Years

*The said apprentice shall receive one quality school ing, each year a suit of new clothing
in addition to his old ones, and a new
Bible at the expiration of the Term*

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto, Dated the Eighteenth day of April in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Stephen Totten
Master

Nathan Smith Junr

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Vanicee
Peter Stagg

} Commissioners.

That

And give the said Apprentices one quarter Schooling in each year. I shall also give Clothing in addition to her 12 ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term.

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighteenth day of April in the Forty Second year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Edmund Smith

Wm. L. Hargrave

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Van Rye
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Fortune Aged Seventeen Years, nine months and two days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas Smith

Black and White Smith to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Black and White Smith and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three Years, two months & twenty eight days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,
his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage
to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his
said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,
or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:
with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall
neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things
behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Black & White Smith
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three years, two months and twenty eight days & two years the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones, and a New Bed at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,
the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents, IN WITNESS
whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Nineteenth day of June in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty two

John Hecsten James Fortune

Thos Smith

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Am. War. Sec.
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

45

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Thomas Hobson & Age Nine
Years and Ten months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Henry Wagner

Term of Apprenticeship to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a furrier

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven Months and Ten months, next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a furrier

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven months and Ten months

And give the said apprentice one year's schooling, in each year a suit of new clothing, in a addition to his old ones, and a new belt at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of April in the forty fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and seventy two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Wm B. Ely

Henry Wagner

Thomas Hobson
and

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Vas. Pei
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

46

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Dorset Lysen Aged Ten Years Seven Months, and fifteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord; put himself Apprentice to

Samuel of the Town of Huntington Suffolk County a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten Years Seven Months fifteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten Years Seven Months

fifteen days. And gives the said apprentice one guinea schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to the old one, and a new Belt at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the 1st day of May in the 46th year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Samuel

Dorset

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John T. A. S. C.
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

(47)

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That

Peter C. Brown & Geo. Hamilton Jones

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Charles Parsons
of the Town of Westman County of Ontario to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of

Seven Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

Seven Years and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year & suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Third day of May in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

W. C. Totten

Peter C. Brown
Charles Parsons

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Van Sic

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That David Hays Leviason Aged Thirteen Years ten Months and Three Days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Micajah Herrick
of South Huntington Suffolk County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven Years one Month and twenty Days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven Years one Month and twenty

seven Days And give the said Apprentice one qualus schooling in each year a suit of New Clothing, in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eight day of May in the Forty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Herrick

David H. Leviason
mark

Micajah Herrick

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

H. R. Smith

John Van Nostrand

Commissioners.

Page 44
Faint

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Clancy aged ten years four months & five days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Hewlett Burgess of North Hempstead Queen's County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years Seven months & twenty five next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years Seven months and twenty five days. And give the said one quarters schooling in each year a suit of New clothes in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term.

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eleventh day of May — in the twentieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Heintz

Hewlett Burgess

John Clancy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

A. Fairlie

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James M. H. ... 1900, ...

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas and Benjamin

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five Years from the date of the date hereof.

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven Years

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of May in the Seventeenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our one thousand, eight hundred and 18

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

IN THE PRESENCE OF

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

Chas. Var. Lee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Butler aged Seventeen years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Henry C. Totten

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years

And the said Apprentice shall receive one year's schooling, in each year and a suit of new Clothing, and a new Coat at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty-third day of May in the fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty-two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

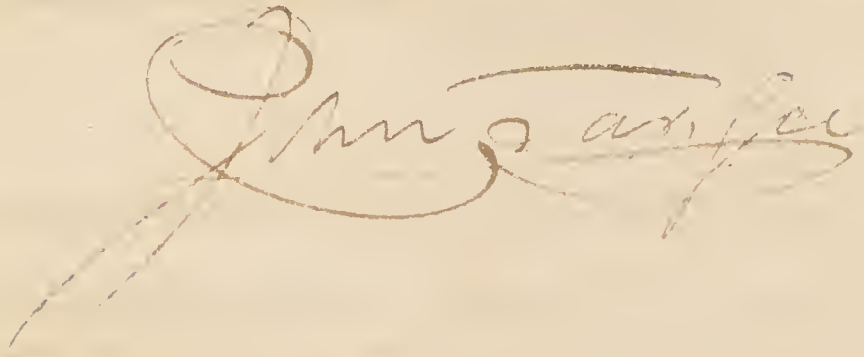

John Butler

Henry C. Totten

Canceled in consequence of the Boys' Runaway

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

A large, flowing handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John A. Jones". The signature is written in a cursive style with long, sweeping strokes.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Terence Farrell Aged Eighteen

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Edward Holmes

Cabinet Maker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Cabinet Maker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his

said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,

or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall

neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cabinet maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three years And give the said Apprentice one year's schooling in each year and a suit of new clothing

in addition to his old ones and a new
Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fourth day of May in the forty sixth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Edward Holmes

Terence Farrell

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Alfred C. Bond

John J. as Sec

Commissioners.

T

Hath sion of h

A

to an du ne hi to s sl o wi ne vice beh. said stru
And fitting ap

a

del of the

And for the the said pa whereof, th the Gen year of the thousand, eig

SEALED AND IN THE PR

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

John Rathwell: aged Sweden
Yours
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Harry Parson

Medall Platter to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Medall Platter
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Medall Platter
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five Years

And gives the said apprentice one quarter, Shooling in each year a Suit of new Clothing in addition to his old one and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. , Dated the First day of June in the Twenty Sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Harry Parson

John Rathwell

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter A. B. ...
Am. & as. ...

Commissioners.

54
This Indenture witnesseth,

That

John Carroll Aged Fourteen Years and five months
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Shoe Maker

a Shoe Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six Years and five months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Shoe Making
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years & five months

And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothes in addition to his old ones, and a new Bible at the expiration of this term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the first day of June in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

John Carroll

George S. Sinkerhoff

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Amos J. Lee
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

55
This Indenture witnesseth,

That Gilbert Hedden Aged Eleven Years and Eleven Months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to of the Florence

Cabinetmaker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Cabinetmaker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years and one month

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cabinetmaker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years, and one month

And gives the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year. A suit of new clothing

in addition to his old ones and a new

Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventh day of June in the Forty Ninth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

Harriet

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

J. R. Smith
Arthur B. Smith

Commissioners.

(58)

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That James Murphy aged thirty years nine months and seven days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Eleanor Stewart

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Two years two months twenty three days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, ~~his~~ secrets keep, ~~his~~ lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to ~~his~~ said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Two years two months and twenty three days
And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term.

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the seventh day of June in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hurston

Eleanor Stewart

James Murphy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
by J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

37
This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Richard Folke Aged fifteen years
One Month and One Day
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Geo W Miller

Cabinet Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Cabinet Maker
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Two years Ten Months & Twenty Nine
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cabinet Maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Two years Ten Months

Twenty Nine days and gives the said Apprentice one quater schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenth day of July in the Forty Second year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

George W Miller

Richard Folke

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

H. K. Smith

John T. Tarver

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That William Barry Aged Thirteen two months & three days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Robert Walker

Shoe Maker - a Shoe Maker
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years, Nine Months & Twenty seven
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Shoe Maker
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years, Nine Months & Twenty

seven days And gave the said Apprentice one quarto schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old one and a new Bible at the expiration of the term.

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth day of July in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Robert Walker

William Barry

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

J. H. Smith
Arthur Burtis
Commissioners.

New York Oct 20th 1826 Arthur Burtis and John Targee on this day consented to Robert Walker transferring the within named apprentice to Daniel C. Nichols of the City of New York Witness
John Hunter

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Samuel Simmons aged sixteen Years four months & seven days

hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Carpenter

Shoe Maker - - - - - a Shoe Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Shoe Maker and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of four years seven months & thirteen days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Shoe Maker And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of four years seven months & thirteen days

And give the said Apprentice
one quarter schooling in each year And a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents, IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty sixth day of July in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Mr Belling

Twenty two

John Carpenter

Samuel Simmons
Master

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Chas. Smith
John Smith

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Aker aged sixteen years ~~four months & twenty five days~~

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Samuel Harriot

Butcher

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Butcher and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of (five years) seven months & five days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Butcher

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of (five years) seven months

& five days And gave the said apprentice one gratuity Schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Second day of August in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

James Aker

C Harriot

Smith

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. T. As. Sec.
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Charles Hagerly Aged Twelve
Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Jackson

Moccasin Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Hair Curling and Moccasin making and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Hair Curler And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine years and five

The Said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year and a suit of New Cloth - ing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Sixth — day of September in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Charles Hagerly
mark

William Jackson

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van Sic
John Butler

Commissioners.

(62)
This Indenture witnesseth,

That Washington Seal Aged Fifteen Years Eight months - thirteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Benjamin Clapp
Carver & Gilder

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Carver & Gilder
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years - three months & eighteen days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Carver & Gilder
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years three months

and eighteen days And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year. and a suit of new clothing,
in addition to his old ones, and a new
Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifteenth day of November in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John H. Hinton

Ben Clapp

Washington
Seal

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Amos Petty

Commissioners.

(63)

This Indenture witnesseth,

That David Randall Age Thirteen Years (Coloured Boy)

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Archibald Falconer

Farmer in Stamford Delaware County,
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years - and give

the said Apprentice one quarter schooling
in each year and a suit of new clothing
in addition to his old ones and a a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thineteenth day of November in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty Two

Wm. B. Elting

Archibald Falconer

David S. Randall
Thos. Hark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Edwards Age Eight years and six months (Coloured Boy)

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Archibald Talbot
Farmer in Stamford Delaware County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Twelve Years Six Months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,

his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his

said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,

or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall

neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Twelve years Six months

and give the said Apprentice one quarter

schooling in each year and a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and

a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Nineteenth day of Novemb in the Forty Seventh

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

A. B. Elling

Consented by consent of Parties Nov-17th 1823

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Ferdinand Bapaul Aged Nine
Years and Six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Selah Brush
Farmer of the Town of Huntington Suffolk County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years & Six months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years & Six months

And give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year and a suit of new in addition to his old ones, and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fifth day of November in the Forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty two

John Hunter Ferdinand Bapaul
Ther

Selah Brush

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. K. Smith
Peter Hagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That William Noble aged Ten Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James Anderson

Cork Butte to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Cork Butte
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cork Butte
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven Years And give

He said Apprentice one Quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the First day of December in the Forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

William I.

Ja

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
Arthur Smith

} Commissioners.

67
This Indenture witnesseth,

That Francis Rhuse Aged Eleven years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

James D. McKim
of the Town of Wallkill, Orange County, Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten Years, And give

the said apprentice one quarter, Schooling, in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenth day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Wm. E. King

James D. McKim

Francis Rhuse Orphan

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

J. W. Smith
Arthur Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That George Thompson Aged Fifteen Years

Seven Months and twenty seven days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Cornelius E. Wyntkoop
of Marble Town Attster County Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five Years four Months, three days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five Years four Months,

three days And give the said Apprentice one quaters schooling in each year. A suit of new Clothing ~~in each~~ in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expi ration of the Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventh day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty two

John Hunter

George Thompson

Cornelius E. Wyntkoop

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

H. R. Smith
J. P. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Patrick Lorne Aged Nine years
Nine months and Eight days -

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Calvin A. Hegan of the Town of Rochester - Albany County - Farmer to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven years two months and twenty two days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven years two months and twenty two days and give the said apprentice one quart of schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Tenth day of December in the Forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty Two

John Hunter

Consented March 27, 1894 by giving the apprentice Ten Dollars in full of all demands

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

Covenant by Carrant of Puritan April 4th 1827

70

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John McCann aged Eleven Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John C. Dubois

of the Town of Hurley, Ulster County, (farmer)

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years

and give the said Apprentice some quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirteenth day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty two

John Hunter

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

Thos. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Samuel Morrison Aged Twelve Years seven months and three days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas Harley

Cabinet Maker — a Cabinet Maker

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of — and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years, seven months, and twenty seven days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Cabinet Maker And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years, seven months, and twenty seven days

twenty seven days and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year — a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new at the expiration of the term —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Samuel Morrison

Thos Harley

This Indenture is cancelled by Thos Harley leaving the City and the boy is discharged from the indenture on 24th Nov 1826 to Ralph Hoag

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Arthur Tappan

John Vasey

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Jonathan Gray Age Fourteen Years and three months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James Dawidge
of the Town of Liberty in Sullivan County (Farm)

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six Years and Nine Months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six Years and Nine months

and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty third day of December in the year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty two

John Hurston

Jonathan Gray
mark

James Dawidge

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

L. Hunter
J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Samuel Dickson aged Eighteen years ten months and six days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Beattie

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Two years one month & twenty four days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Two years one month &

twenty four days - And give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of
new clothing in addition to his old ones and
a new bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty fifth day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Consented by Consent of J. Beattie

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Vas. Lee
La. Hustle

Commissioners.

The Commissioners of the City of New York have agreed previously to the Execution of this Indenture that the quarters Schooling therein specified shall not be binding but private agreements to be considered as an agreement therefor John Hunter
John Hunter

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Charles Durland Older Aged Twelve years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Chenon Bull

of New Cornwall Orange County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years

And the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year, a suit of new clothing, in addition to his old ones, and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty seventh day of December in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hursten

Chenon Bull

Charles Durland Older Minor

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm Varie
Attn Curtis

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That

James Honey Agent for the Lease Two months and Seventeen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas Horn

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Gardener
and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years nine months and fifteen days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Gardener
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years nine months and fifteen days

the said Apprentice one quarter learning in each year a trade new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of January in the Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Honey

his James Honey
mark

Thomas Horn

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

J. H. Smith

Alfred Smith

Commissioners.

Small (75)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Edward Quinn - Aged Nine Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Robert Christie

Farmer of Tioga County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Twelve Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Twelve years

And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Third day of January in the Forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Christie

James Edward Quinn
his Robert Christie

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Am. & as. for H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

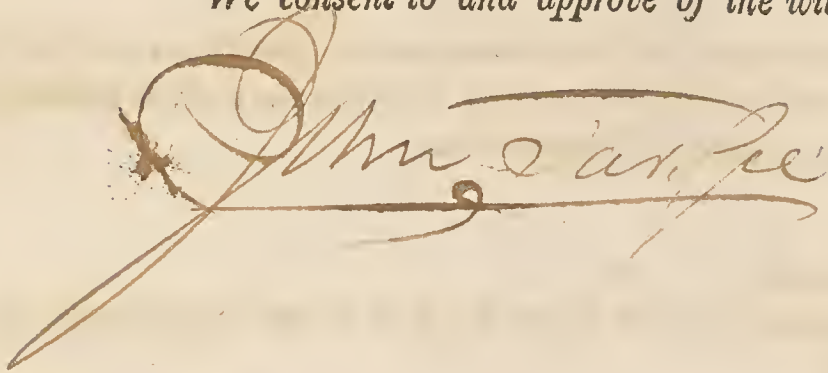

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the day of in the year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

A large, ornate handwritten signature in dark ink, likely belonging to John S. Van Ness, a prominent figure in New York City history. The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial 'J' and a long, sweeping underline.

} Commissioners.

J. C. Totten
J. Totten
(76)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Francis Wilson of the County of New York County of New York

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

John Stewart
Stewart Stewart & Company Farmers

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of

Nine years and five months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

Nine years and five months months and five months the said apprentice shall receive one dollar one dollar schooling in each year a suit of new clothing of new clothing in addition to his old one and a new Bible one and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the third day of July in the forty fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Francis Wilson
mark

John Stewart

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. R. Smith

Wm. Tax. Fee

Commissioners.

7 is
J. C. (77)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That John Anderson aged twelve years three months and two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Robert Taron

Manan

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of ... ...

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years, Eight months and twenty eight days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years, Eight months and twenty eight days

And give the said Apprentice

one quarter of schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones, and a new V. Ribes at the expiration of his term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighteenth day of February in the Forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

J.

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. Smith
Peter Stagg

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That John Perryman aged seventeen years

two months, and twenty days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Baker

of a Y Baker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of of a Y Baker
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three Years Nine Months & Ten days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of of a Y Baker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three Years Nine Months & Ten days

John Baker and give to said apprentice one shilling weekly in each year as part of new clothing in addition to his old coat and a new Y Baker at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Eighth day of February in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty two

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter John

Counselled by

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Smith

Arthur Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Henry Noah Lundt Aged Fifteen years and Eight months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James B. Gascoigne
Hardware Merchant

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of A Hardware Merchant and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years and four months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Hardware Merchant And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years and four months And give the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothing on addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighth day of March in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter J. B. Gascoigne

Heckard

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. V. Assee
Arthur Burtis

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That

John Tagland Age Thirteen Years Eleven Months and twenty days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Howell

Farmer of South Hamilton
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven Years and ten days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endcavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven Years, and ten days

and give the said Apprentice one quarter in each year a suit of new clothing, in addition to his old ones, and a new Bibbs at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eleventh day of March in the 17th year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

John Tagland John Howell
Mark

John Howell

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter A. Bagg

J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Queen Carroll, aged nineteen years ten months & six days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Henry Eggleston
of the City of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of an upholsterer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of one year, one month & twenty four days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of an upholsterer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of one year, one month & twenty four days, and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year, and a new bible at the expiration of the term
also thirty dollars per year in lieu of clothing.

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of March, in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter Henry Eggleston

Queen Carroll

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

J. H. Smith
John Van der

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Thomas Wallace Aged Eighteen Years and one Month

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Geo W Skellorn

Painter & Ornamentat Chaus alla her to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Painting and Ornamenting Chaus
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Two Years & Eleven Months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Painting & Ornamenting Chaus

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Two Years & Eleven Months

And give the Said Apprentice one good schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones, and a new Bible at the expiration of the Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Third day of March in the forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty Three

John Hunter

Geo W Skellorn

Thomas Wallace

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Amos Lee

J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That George Shaw aged eleven years and six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Olden Foster Farmer of South Hampton Suffolk County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine years & six months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine years and six months and give the said apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the second day of April in the seventeenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

George Shaw his mark

Olden Foster

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter A. A. A.

P. A. A.

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That John Nelson Aged Twelve Years past months and twelve days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Francis Egleso

Upholster and Sofa Maker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of an Upholster & Sofa maker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight Years six months & Eighteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of an Upholster & Sofa maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years six months and Eighteen

days And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighteenth day of April in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three

John Hunter Francis Egleso

John Nelson maker

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Th. R. Smith
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Brown Aged Eleven Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James Taylor

of the Town of Sanford County of Brown

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and gave

the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old one and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty first day of April in the Twenty year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty three

John Hunter

James + W Brown
Master

James Taylor

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Thomas Jefferson aged Ten Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Edwin Roberts
of the Town of Seneca County of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a journeyman

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a journeyman

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

Eleven years and give the said Apprentice one year's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing
in addition to his old ones and a new Wife at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty first day of April in the forty second year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Hunter

Edwin Roberts

Thomas Jefferson
Mark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth.

That Justin Barnard — Aged Fifteen years and Nine months —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Wm. B. Ireland — of the Town of Reading County of Stuten — to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer —

and after the manner of an apprentice, to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five Years and three months —

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years and three months

a give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Second day of April in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED } Twenty Three
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Laban Hunter

Wm B Ireland

Justin Barnard
(mark)

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. S. As. Sec.
Peter H. H. H.

Commissioners.

Francis Thompson
Elwyn Sears
This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That Daniel Mialoy aged Twelve years
and three months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Wm B Ireland
of the Town of Steading - Sullivan Sullivan County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years and Nine Months Ten Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and Nine Months Ten Years

Months and give the said Apprentice
one quarter schooling in each year a suit
of new Clothing in addition to his old ones
and a new Bible at the expiration of the
term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty second day of April in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hurston

Wm B Ireland

Francis Thompson
Elwyn Sears
Daniel Mialoy
(Master)

Daniel Mialoy was returned to the Alms House and Francis Thompson was taken in his old

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John A. S. Lee
John A. S. Lee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years and seven
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and seven

Months and give the Said Apprentice one quarter's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fifth day of April in the Forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Henry Chapman

Thos L. Shepard

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van der
Alfred Burtis

Commissioners.

Consent of Justice, March 12 - 1889

APB
89

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That Thomas Wallace & John Brown

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Samuel Wilson

of the City of Albany to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten Years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten Years and give the

said apprentice one good schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old and a new Y Bibber at the expiration

of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the first day of May in the forty seven year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three.

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Wm J Collins

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Arthur Burleigh

John Surpin

Commissioners.

(90)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Henry Coyne of York County, New York
Three months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Frederick Demarest
of the Town of Warwick Orange County - Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine years and Nine Months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine Years and Nine Months

and gave the said apprentice one quarter of a dollar per week for his board and clothing in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Yoke at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventh day of May in the fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Frederick Demarest
John Hunter
Henry Coyne
Frederick Demarest

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

James O'ashe
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Sleath Aged Fifteen Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Dodge of

the Town of New Windsor Orange County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farming and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farming. And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years and one day.

said apprentice one quality schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones under new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty-fifth day of May in the forty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty-three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm Gaspe
Peter Briggs

Commissioners.

This Indenture

Witnesseth,
That Thomas Smith aged thirty years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Bodle

the Town of New Windsor Orange County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and gave

the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Ninth day of May in the Year of Swath year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hurston

William Bodle

Thos Smith
mark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Vasfie
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Ferry Jackson (black) aged Nine Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Bode of the Town of New Windsor Orange County Farm to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Twelve years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Twelve years And

give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Breech at the expiration of the Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Ninth day of May in the forty seven year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

William Bode

Ferry Jackson

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. T. Aspin
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Dawsey Aged fourteen years Eight months and Twenty three days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John Hegeman

Taylor

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Taylor

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years Three months and seven days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Taylor

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years Three months

and seven days - and give the said Apprentice notice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new shirt at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the first day of June in the forty seven year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter John Hegeman

John Dawsey

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Van Rye
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

7 R 10 (95)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Thomas Winterscale Aged Fifteen years - and Six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Charles A. Williamson of the Town of Geneva Ontario County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years and Six Months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years and Six Months

and give the said Apprentice the quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Sixth day of June in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three
John Hunter Thomas Winterscale

Chas Williamson

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

} Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That George Croff - (a black boy) - aged Twelve years and six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to George Rouwenhoven
of the Town of New York Queens County - Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years and six months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years and six months

and give the said Apprentices one quarter of wheat in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old one and a new Coat at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Sixth day of June in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty Three

John Hunter

George Rouwenhoven

George Croff
(Mark)

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Amos, Jr.
Alfred Butler

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That William Savours aged Ten Years and nine months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to W^m Mead of the

Town of Clermont — Columbia County — Jersey
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years and three months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and three months

and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eight day of June in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

William Mead

Wm Savours
Master

Conditioned for 6 months

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

Am. Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That John Webb aged Eleven years and three months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Philip Verplanck Junr

of the Town of Cortlandt West Chester County Farmer

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine years and Nine Months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine years and Nine Months

and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of June in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

Philip Verplanck Junr
John + Webb work

Philip Verplanck Junr

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Arthur Bonfig
John Gaspe

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Marks Aged Fourteen years and Eleven Months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Stephen Storm

of the City of New York
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years and one month

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years and one month

and give the said Apprentice one quarter Shilling, in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirteenth day of June in the Forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

Twenty three John Marks
mark

Stephen Storm

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Almon Bruntis

John Tarlee

Commissioners.

(100)
This Indenture witnesseth,

That Wm Charles — aged Eight years —

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Francis A. Cotard

of the City of New York —

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant —

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Thirteen years —

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Thirteen years —

And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year and a suit of new clothing, in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirteenth day of June in the Forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Cancelled by Consent of Parties Charles Wm 1878

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Alfred Butler

John Tarver

Commissioners.

1824 On the 23rd of April the Commissioners took the within named boy from the Master but his part of the Indenture was not given up John Hunter

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That William Gibson Aged four years
and five months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thomas Shaw

of the City of New York

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Sixteen years and Seven month

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of

a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

Sixteen years and Seven

Month And give the said Apprentice one quater schooling in each year a suit

of new clothing in addition to his old ones

and a new Bible at the expiration of the

term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of June in the forty seventh

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter Wm Gibson
Mark

Thos Shaw
mark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

William Smith
John T. As. Fee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Edward McCann aged three years and nine months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to George Jay

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seventeen years and nine months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seventeen years and nine months and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term — — —

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty eighth day of June in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Harvett

Edward McCann month

George Jay

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. Vas. Lee
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Braden Aged Fifteen years
five months and Eleven day

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Daniel Lewis

Heard of the City of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a House Draper
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years Six months and Nineteen days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,

his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Draper

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years Six months and

Nineteen days, and give the said Apprentice
one quarter Schooling in each year a suit of New Clothing in addition to his wages and a new Bibber at the expiration of his Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty seventh day of June in the July Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Daniel Lewis

James Braden

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Wm. D. As. Fee
Peter J. Jagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Henry Broff Aged Forteen Years
two Months, and Seventeen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James White

Plumber of the City of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Plumber
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years Nine Months, and Thirteen days, next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,

his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of A Plumber

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years Nine Months and

Thirteen days And give the said Apprentice
one quarter Schooling in each year a suit of
new clothing in addition to his old ones and a New Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Seventh day of June in the forty Seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

James White

Henry Broff

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Gaspe

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Heren aged Ten years Eleven Month and three days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Charles H. Carroll

Town of Brooklyn Livingston County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years and twenty seven days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and twenty seven

days and give the said Apprentice one quater schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bibber at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twentieth day of July in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three

John Hunter

Charles H. Carroll

James H. Carroll
Master

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Varice
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

Received of the City of New York the sum of $1000.00 for the purchase of the land of the City of New York for the use of the City of New York.

to the Commissioner of the Alms-House
New York
Nov. 22, 1829

(106)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Henry Aker aged fourteen years one month and ten days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Thos Harrison

Silk Weaver of the City of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Seam and Printer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years Ten Months and Twenty days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of — a Seam Printer —

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

*Six Years Ten months and Twenty days — And give the said apprentice
one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in Addition to his old ones and
a new Bible at the expiration of the term*

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eleventh day of July in the forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty Three

John Hunter

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John Cas. Lee } Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James M. Laughlin aged six years and three months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Cephias Corns
Stock Farmer of the town of Harrison County of Cammber

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of

fourteen years & nine months

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of

a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

fourteen years and nine months and give the said

Apprentice One Quarter Schooling

in each year a suit of new clothing

in addition to his old ones and

a new Bible at the expiration

of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifteenth day of July in the forty eighth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

James M. Laughlin

Cephias Corns

40-91-

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Var. Lee
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

Robert Moody aged Ten years Eleven months and twenty three days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Michael Toohy

Printer of New York
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years and seven days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Printer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and seven

Days and give the said apprentice one quarter of new Blotting in each year a sheet of new Blotting in addition to his old one and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eighteenth day of July in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Robert Moody

Mich^l. Toohy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John War. Jce

Commissioners.

P. 18
109

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That John Nestit Aged Twelve years and months and Twenty Eight day

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John C. Milkis

farmer of the Town of Wallkill Orange County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years five months & two days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing; fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years five months &

two days - and give him the said Apprentice
one quarter schooling in each year a suit
of new clothing in addition to his old ones and
a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Ninth day of July in the forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John C. Milkis
Master

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Hunter Aged Fifteen years five months and fourteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Samuel Cook

of the Town of South Hampton Suffolk County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of five years six months sixteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of five years six months

and sixteen days

And give the said Apprentice

one quarter schooling in each year a suit of

new clothing in addition to his old ones and

a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,

the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of August in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

James Hunter

Samuel Cook

James Hunter

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John War, Sec.

Commissioners.

J. T.
P. S. (111)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Geo. Hoxien. Aged Twelve years Seven months and four days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Richard Curren

of the Town of Brookhaven Suffolk County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years four months and six days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years four months and six days and give the said Apprentice

one quarter schooling in each year a suit

of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and

a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of August in the forty eight year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Hunter

Carried by consent of parties July 15th 1826

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Waser

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Henry Armstrong Aged Seventeen years nine months and Thirteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Asa A French

Lady shoe maker to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Lady's Shoe maker and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three years two months & Seventeen days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Lady's shoe maker. And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three years two months and seventeen days and give the said apprentice one year's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty Ninth day of August in the forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty Three

John Hunter

Henry Armstrong

Asa A. French

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Alfred Burtis
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Jarvis Vancoth Aged four years five months and twenty two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Jarvis Vancoth

of the City of New York to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of sixteen years five months & eight days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of sixteen years five months

Eight days And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth day of September in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Winter

Jarvis Vancoth

Jarvis Vancoth
mark

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John T. Ar. Fee
Alfred B. Burtis

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Richard Downey Aged Eleven Years two months and twenty four days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Martin Benedict

Sealing was made — — — — — to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Sealing Wax maker

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine Years Nine months & six days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Sealing wax maker

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Nine years Nine Months

and six days, and give the said apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing
in addition to his old ones and a new
Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Nineteenth day of September in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty three

John H. Carter

I am satisfied by transcript of Justice of Peace 11th May 1823

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Varley
Alfred Burtis

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Geo Wilson aged fifteen years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Jonathan Eddy

Tanner of the Town of Haverhill, Massachusetts to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Tanning

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Tanning

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years and six months

The said Apprentice one quality scholar in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty sixth day of September in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF Twenty three

This was taken out of the indenture and away before the date of the indenture

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

P

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Joseph Southard aged Eleven years Eight months and fifteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James Hageman

Turner of Statenland Kings County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Turner

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of nine years three months fifteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Turner

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of nine years three months fifteen days

And give the said Apprentice one year's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones as he may desire at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fourth day of September in the Twenty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

James Hageman
Turner

James Hageman

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Harp

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Blanchard Aged Twelve years four months and nine days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Mr. H. Cegeman

Farmet of Flatbush King County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years seven months & twenty one days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years seven months & twenty one days

And give the said apprentice one quarter, schooling, in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old, and a new pair of shoes at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fourth day of September in the seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

James Hunter

Miss James + Blanchard
Wm. H. Cegeman

W. H. Cegeman

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Vas. Jr.

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That James Moore (Black) Aged Eleven
Years and Six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to William Johnson

of Suffolk Erie County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Five years and Six months next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Five years and Six months

And give the said apprentice one gratuity to each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new shirt at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fourth day of September in the Forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three James Houston William Johnson

James Moore
Master

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg

John Van. See

Commissioners.

(119)

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

John Bryant Aged Eleven years One month and fifteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to

Henry Pierson Farmer of the town of Blooming Grove County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Three years ten months and fifteen days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his

said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,

or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall

neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing,

fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Three years ten months and fifteen days and give the said Apprentice one year's schooling, or such year as suits

of new clothing in addition to his old ones

and a new Bible at the expiration of the

term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,

the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Eleventh day of October in the Seventy Third year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty Three

John Hurster

John Bryant

Henry Pierson

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John A. S. Lee
Peter Hagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That William Jones (Black), Aged Eight Years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Niles Reed

of Southwell & Channing County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Servant

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Thirteen years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Thirteen years & four months

The said Apprentice one quarter of his wages in each week a week of money & cloth in addition to his old wages and a new Pair at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty 6th day of October in the fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John M. ...

Niles Reed

Wm Jones
Master

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Tar. Fee

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That

John Anderson Aged Nine years four months and two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Mr. John Smith of the Town of Cornwall Orange County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven years seven months and twenty eight days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve,
his secrets keep, ~~his~~ lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his
said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,
or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall
neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven years seven months and twenty eight days - and give the said

Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year, a suit of new Clothing

in addition to his old ones, and a

new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,
the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the November day of fifth in the forty eighth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty three

Wm. J. Totten

The undersigned witnesses have signed and sealed these presents

John Anderson

Ann Finley

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Starke
J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That John Herring - (Black) - Aged Eleven
Years -

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to James T. Wells
Schoolmaster of the Town of New Rochelle
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Servant
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven Years
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Servant
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven Years

and give the said Apprentice one year's schooling in each year a suit of new clothing, in addition to his old suit and a new Coat at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fifth day of November in the Forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Herring

John T. Wells

James T. Wells

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Thos. Smith
Peter Stagg

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Samuel McTear Aged ten years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Isaac Maynard Master of the Town of Stamford Connecticut to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eleven years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eleven years and five

The said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of November in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three

John Hunter

his Samuel McTear
mark

Isaac Maynard

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van, See
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

(125)
This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Edward Williams, Aged fifteen years,

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Isaac Maynard

Farmer of the Town of New York
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Six years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Six years

And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year at or out of New York, in addition to his old Rent, and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of November in the fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

Edward Williams
mark

Isaac Maynard

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John T. As. fee
H. R. Smith

Commissioners.

(126)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That John Carragan of the County of Livingston

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Alexander Smith of the County of Soldiers to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of nine years next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of nine years

the said Apprentice, one quarter of his wages, in each week, a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones (and) a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of November in the fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

John Carragan

Cancelled by Consent of Parties Nov-28th 1823

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Var. fee
E. H. Smith

Commissioners.

That Geo. Corliss - aged thirteen years

Farmer Town of Delha Delaware County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

He said. Apprentice one quarter, schooler in cash read a suit of new Clothing, in addition to the old ones and a new

Value at the expiration of the Term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the thirteenth day of November in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and 48

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

James Hamilton George Conlin

Donald Shaw

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van See
J. H. Smith

Commissioners.

(128)
This Indenture witnesseth,

That Joseph Crouter aged eleven years

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Wm Stoddard

farmer — Town of Delhi Seneca County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years And give

the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new

Bible at expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Thirteenth day of November in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty three

John Hunter

his Joseph + Crouter
mark

Wm Stoddard

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

John Van, see
Peter Hagg

Commissioners.

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Almon Butler
John Van Rensselaer

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That James Lee gan _____ Aged fourteen years - four months and ten days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Isaac Sherwood

Painter & Glazier of the Town of Flushing Queens Co to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Painter & Glazier

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of five years seven months & twenty days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Painter & Glazier

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of five years seven months

and twenty days - and give the said

Apprentice one quater schooling

in each year a suit of new clothing

in addition to his old ones and a new

Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of November in the forty eighth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty three

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

John Hunter

S

e

Examined by Court of Sessions March 17th 1826

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Arthur Bunting
John Vasey

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Henry B. Lee Aged Twelve years

One month and Twenty eight days
Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Abm Miller

Manufacturer of Woolen Cloth of the Town of Somers Westchester County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Woolen Manufacturer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years, ten months and Twenty Eight days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of Woolen Manufacture. And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years, Ten months and Twenty eight days, and gives the said Apprentice one quarters schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old, ones, and

a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. In Witness whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of November in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty Three

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Henry W. Lee Aged Twelve years
One month and two days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Amos Miller
Manufacturer of Woolen Cloths of the Town of Somerset, Westchester County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a woolen Manufacturer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years Ten months & twenty Eight days
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a woolen Manufacturer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years Ten months and

Twenty Eight days And give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in Addition to his old ones and a new Bibber at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the fourteenth day of November in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

Twenty Three

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

} Commissioners.

11

This Indenture

Witnesseth,

That Doyle Sweeney Aged Eleven years Eight months and ten days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to David Cook of

the Town of South Hampton - Suffolk County - Farmer
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Nine years three months and twenty days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of

Nine years three months and twenty days and give the said Apprentice

one quarter schooling in each year and a new suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration

of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of November in the forty eighth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty three

John Hunter

Doyle Sweeney
Donato

David Cook

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter A.
John Tar, Jr.

Commissioners.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Seaman Morgan Aged Ten years
and Six months

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John S. Durry

Town of Rhinebeck Dutchess County
to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer
and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Ten years and Six months
next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Ten years and Six

months And give the said Apprentice
One quarter schooling in each year a suit of clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Seventeenth day of November in the forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED }
IN THE PRESENCE OF }

twenty three

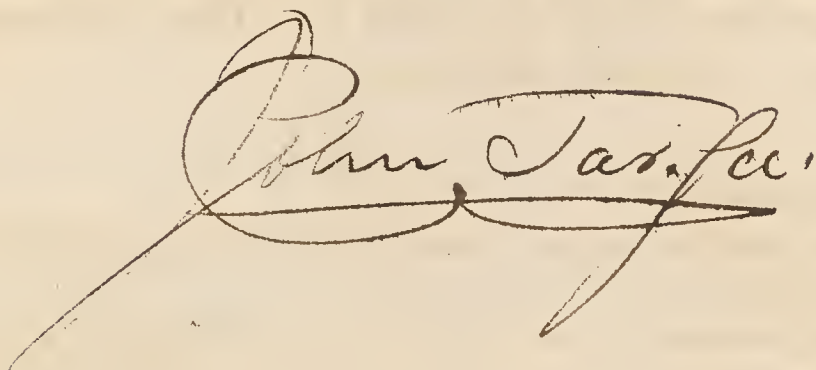

John S. Durry

Seaman Morgan
his
mark

John S. Durry

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "John T. As. Sec.", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the left.

Commissioners.

Cancelled by Consent of Parties 26th April 1824

(134)

J. C. Totten, printer.

This Indenture witnesseth,

That Francis Duffie aged Twelve years eight months and thirteen days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to Cornelius J. Decker
of the Town of Shaverington Utster County to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Turner

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Eight years three months and seventeen days next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice, or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage: with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Turner
And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing, fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Eight years three months

and seventeen days, and give the said Apprentice one quarter schooling in each year a suit of new Clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the Twenty fifth day of November in the Forty Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALED AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty Three

John Hunter

of or for

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John Tax, Jr.

Commissioners.

This Indenture Witnesseth,

That Henry N. Felthousen Aged Thirteen years
Eight months and twenty six days

Hath put himself, and by these presents, with the consent and approbation of the Commissioners of the Alms-House and Bridewell, of the city of New-York, doth voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, put himself Apprentice to John McMurphy

Farmer Town of Portright Delaware County

to learn the Art, Trade, and Mystery of a Farmer

and after the manner of an apprentice to serve from the day of the date hereof, for and during the full end and term of Seven years three months and four days

next ensuing: During all which time, the said apprentice his master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, his lawful commands every where readily obey: He shall do no damage

to his said master nor see it done by others, without letting or giving notice thereof to his

said master: He shall not waste his said master's goods, nor lend unlawfully to any: He

shall not commit fornication, nor contract matrimony within the said term: At cards, dice,

or any other unlawful game he shall not play, whereby his said master may have damage:

with his own goods, nor the goods of others, without license from his said master, he shall

neither buy nor sell: He shall not absent himself day or night from his said master's service, without his leave; nor haunt ale-houses, taverns, nor play-houses: but in all things

behave himself as a faithful Apprentice ought to do, during the said term. And the said Master shall use the utmost of his endeavours to teach, or cause to be taught, or instructed, the said Apprentice, in the trade or mystery of a Farmer

And procure and provide for him sufficient meat, drink, apparel, lodging, and washing,

fitting for an Apprentice, during the term of Seven years three months and four days, and give the said Apprentice

one quarter schooling in each year and suit of new clothing in addition to his old ones and a new Bible

at the expiration of the term

And for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements aforesaid,

the said parties bind themselves unto the other firmly by these presents. IN WITNESS

whereof, the said parties have interchangeably set their hands and seals hereunto. Dated the twenty sixth day of November in the forty eighth

year of the Independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and

SEALD AND DELIVERED
IN THE PRESENCE OF

Twenty three

John Hunter

Henry N. Felthousen his mark

John McMurphy

CITY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

We consent to and approve of the within Indenture.

Peter Stagg
John Van Ness

Commissioners.

